

Call for Papers:
philoSOPHIA*: A Society for Continental Feminism at Diverse Lineages of Existentialism II
June 3-5, 2019 at George Washington University

philoSOPHIA is honored to participate in the second Diverse Lineages of Existentialism conference, which will take place June 3-5, 2019 at George Washington University in Washington, D.C. The society will host two panels of three papers each. We are particularly interested in papers that, while engaging continental philosophical and feminist themes, highlight the society's commitment to diversity along the axes of gender, race, ethnicity, sexuality, ability, class, and citizenship.

Please send submissions in the form of complete papers formatted for blind review to philosophiafeministsociety@gmail.com by October 15, 2018. Note that philoSOPHIA is also hosting its annual conference in May 2018; submission or presentation of a philoSOPHIA panel at DLE II does not exclude applicants from simultaneously submitting their paper to the philoSOPHIA annual conference.

Submissions will be reviewed by the Executive Committee.
